Instructor Biography:

Gaetan Pham was born in Mulhouse, France, attending Robert Schuman University in Strasbourg, Alsace, France. He also attended Nottingham Trent University in the United Kingdom where he resided for 3 years tutoring French to students. His passion for teaching lead him to become an educational trip leader in France for students all over the UK wishing to improve their French skills. Gaetan then moved to Vancouver over 5 years ago and has continued his passion for tutoring in French, Math and Science. He is currently working towards becoming a French Immersion teacher for Secondary High Schools, and is very dedicated to his students' and their well-being. His diverse and creativity approach is engaging and welcomed by all!
